+ Nagourney by Xerox.

Hi Bruce.

I am glad to note your connection with COMTEX, and I view it and your connection with it as a 'good thing'. I guess I could offer an occasional '10 minutes' on an ad hoc basis; but I have reached the limit of my formal affiliations, and the number of advertised obligations that can fit on my conflict-of-interest statements.

I will suggest to Nagourney that he invite me to 'observe' at an occasional meeting; and in lieu of compensation that COMTEX make some contribution (perhaps in kind) to R.U. What he has every right to be looking for, however, is the use of my name; and at this point I would have to hold back. Please feel free to read this back to him.
